The Fraternity of Saint George is a not for gain Friendly Society. The principal part of your fee goes to the Estate where you shoot and/or to a Charity of the Armed Services. The remainder goes to indemnify maintenance, transport, communications and stationary expenses incurred by Officers of the Fraternity. A float is maintained for prizes and towards costs of the next shoot. To the extent that the above declared insurance is invalid or does not cover the whole of any liability incurred by the signatory, the signatory accepts to make good any difference themselves and to indemnify the Fraternity in respect of any costs, damage or detriment incurred by it as a consequence of the acts of the signatory.

The Fraternity reserves the right to call for additional insurance. Beyond the exercise of such reasonable care as enshrined in the Constitution and Rules, the Fraternity's Custodians, Officers, Agents or Assigns expressly disclaim all liability for injury, damage or detriment of any kind. The signatory is deemed to have accepted the above terms and the Constitution and the Rules.

Dress-code:

dark blue v-neck jumper and tie, white shirt, dark grey trousers or shirt, dark shoes or walking boots, dark/sober rainwear.

No jeans, no trainers, no exceptions.

The Fraternity of Saint George is a not for gain friendly society whose aims are: to ensure ease of entry into the sport; to ensure that all ages and abilities shall shoot on equal terms; so all shall have a chance to score and to enjoy themselves. The Fraternity of Saint George is governed by a Constitution and Rules which provide for due diligence in the safe organisation of its shoots.

The Constitution and Rules are freely available on site. Beyond the exercise of such reasonable care as enshrined in the Constitution and Rules, the Fraternity's Custodians, Officers, Agents or Assigns expressly disclaim all liability for injury, damage or detriment of any kind.

All shooting members shall be fully insured by membership of the I.L.A.A., the Gnas or equivalent mainstream archery associations within or outside the United Kingdom and which provide equivalent cover. Proof of insurance is required at registration and may be called for at any time. The Fraternity reserves the right to call for additional insurance.
